IAME Placement Officer

Dear All,

IAME strives to create skillful candidate to proclaim one's dream through one to one mentoring sessions, students counselling and skill development trainings. This platform does not only concentrate to promote employment opportunity but also mold students for entrepreneurial behavior. Finding a dream job and better opportunities is a journey that involves self-discovery, strategic planning, and continuous growth. To start, it's important to reflect on your passions, skills, and values to identify what truly excites and motivates you. Research industries and roles that align with your interests, and seek out experiences that can enhance your understanding and expertise in those areas.

Networking is also key; building relationships with professionals in your desired field can open doors to hidden opportunities and provide invaluable insights. Additionally, consider furthering your education or obtaining certifications to bolster your qualifications. Keep an open mind and be prepared to adapt as you learn more about your interests and the evolving job market. Remember, your dream job may not come immediately, but each step you take brings you closer to the fulfilling career you envision.

Voices of Future

IAME STUDENTS COLUMN

"While doing my MBA, I was also working, and today I'm with Bosch Global Software Technologies as a Project Management Specialist. Honestly, the support IAME gave me during that time made a big difference. They didn't just push placements; they focused more on making us confident — from communication to interviews to basic corporate behavior".

Manoj S
IAME Alumni

"Walking into my first year of MBA felt like opening a door to endless opportunities. It wasn't just about lectures or assignments; it was about discovering myself, testing my limits, and forming bonds with classmates who became friends, teammates, and companions on this journey".

Tejaswini R
MBA , IAME

"I believe becoming an entrepreneur is not just about building a business — it's about building myself. I want to create something that reflects my ideas, my values, and my courage to stand out. I've seen many young women, including myself, wanting more than a 9-to-5 routine — we crave purpose, not just paychecks".

Afra Fathima
BBA Final Year

Voices of Future

IAME STUDENTS COLUMN

"Believe in yourself because you don't know what the situation makes you, sometimes, you have to create your own road and leave footprints for others to follow".

---Varshitha
PGDM, IAME

"Business opportunities are everywhere, you just need to have patience to grab the opportunity which connects to your passion".

--Mohammad Fareed
MBA, IAME

"While luck can play a role in certain situations, relying solely on it can lead to passivity. Embracing hardship, on the other hand, involves recognizing that challenges and obstacles are inevitable parts of life's journey. It encourages a mindset where effort, resilience, and determination are valued as the true drivers of success".
